Numb. 9094.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 17, to Saturday September 21, 1751.

Cadiz, Auguſt 25.

FOUR Regiſter Ships having ſailed from hence the Beginning of this Month for the Weſt Indies, and ſome others now lying ready in our Road, waiting for their laſt Orders to purſue the ſame Voyage, ſeveral Merchants of this and other trading Cities have reſolved to repreſent to the King, the great Prejudice the Commerce of this Kingdom receives by the ſending of thoſe Ships, the principal Part of their Produce being conſtantly drawn off by Foreigners, and to beſeech his Majeſty to give Orders, that for the future the Galleons and Flotilla only may be permitted to go thither as heretofore. The Court having received repeated Advice, that the Number of Algerine Corſairs, cruizing off Gibraltar, were greatly augmented, has ſent Orders to Commodore Stuart to give them Chace, but at the ſame Time to keep within Sight of the Coaſt, as he may be able to protect the Regiſter Ships that are expected from the Weſt Indies.

Naples, Aug. 31. A few Days ago a Frigat of 36 Guns was launched in their Majeſties Preſence; and they continue working with great Diligence at the new Men of War which are now upon the Stocks, with which it was ſome Time ago reſolved to augment the Royal Navy of this Kingdom. Our Advices from Sicily are full of Accounts of Earthquakes which are almoſt continually happening there, and particularly at Palermo, the Inhabitants whereof have been ſo intimidated, that many of them have quitted the City, and live under Tents in the Fields. Count Piatti, Miniſter from the Republick of Venice to this Court, died here a few Days ago.

Rome, Sept. 4. The Biſhop of Nocera having tranſmitted to the Pope a very particular Account of the Sufferings of the Inhabitants of that City, and its Neighbourhood, occaſioned by the dreadful Earthquakes with which they were lately viſited; as alſo of their preſent miſerable Situation and Circumſtances, the Pope has ſent him Inſtructions to give them ſuch preſent Relief as he ſhall judge neceſſary; and has moreover promiſed, that, in Conſideration of their Misfortunes, they ſhall pay no Taxes to the Apoſtolical Chamber for three Years to come. The Congregation of Propaganda Fide have lately received Advice, that ſo violent a Perſecution was carrying on in China againſt the Roman Catholicks, as obliged their Miſſionaries to retire from thence. Cardinal Mellini and M. Angervilliers are appointed by the Pope to regulate every Thing concerning the Erection of the two new Archbiſhopricks of Gortz and Udine, and to ſettle the Number of Biſhopricks which each ſhall contain. We learn from the Ferrarois, that ſeveral Commiſſaries were arrived there, and were buying up great Quantities of Corn, agreeable to a Permiſſion which the Pope lately granted for that Purpoſe to the Court of Parma. They write from Gualdo, that by the late Earthquake, a large Opening was made in a Mountain a little Diſtance from thence, ſomething like that upon the Top of Mount Veſuvius, but that as yet no ſulphurous or bituminous Matter had iſſued from it.

Berlin, Sept. 11. Since the general Review that the King made of the Troops which compoſed the Camp near Ohlau, thoſe Troops are all marched off for their reſpective Quarters. On the 8th Inſtant his Majeſty ſet out for Neiſs. Before his Departure he gave Leave to Major General Bornſted to reſign his Employments, on Account of his bad State of Health, and at the ſame Time conferred on him the Title of Lieutenant General, with a conſiderable Penſion. The Regiment of Cuiraſſiers, of which he was Colonel, has been ſince given to Prince Schonaich, Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Cuiraſſiers of Rochow.

Hambourg, Sept. 17. Private Letters by the laſt Poſt from the Frontiers of Turky aſſure us, that although every Thing there remained in perfect Tranquility, yet they continued to repair and augment the Fortifications of Oczakou, Bender and Choczim, and to fill the different Magazines with all Neceſſaries. According to our laſt Advices from Dantzick, they have made great Preparations for the Reception of the Chancellor and Vice Chancellor of Poland, who were ſoon expected there to terminate the Differences between the Magiſtrates and Citizens of that City. They write from Kaminieck, that the Prince of Czartorinſky, Palatine of Ruſſia, had lately made his publick Entry in Quality of General of Podolia. Marſhal Count Lowendahl dahl is daily expected here from Holſtein, and 'tis believed he will only ſtay two or three Days before he returns to France.

Duſſeldorp, Sept. 20. Recruits are almoſt daily arriving here from Weſtphalia and the Upper Rhine, where they were inliſted to ſerve in the Imperial Troops. They have all uniform Cloathing given them at Cologne; after which they are ſent forwards for the Auſtrian Low Countries.

Bruſſels. Sept. 20. 'Tis now ſaid that Prince Charles of Lorrain, our Governor General, will not leave Vienna till the 15th or 20th of next Month. The Prince and Princeſs of Lichtenſtein are daily expected here from Spa. The Price of Proviſions in this City is conſiderably augmented within theſe few Days paſt, on Account of the vaſt Quantity of Rain that has lately fallen, which has made the Roads impaſſable in many Places, ſo that the Country People have not been able to come near us with their Carriages. They write from Oſtend and Nieuport, that all the Meadows round them are under Water.

Hambourg, Sept. 21. M. Haſeler, whom the King of Pruſſia ſends as Miniſter to Denmark, in the Room of M. de Voſs, who is recalled from that Court, has paſſed through Hambourg on his Way to Copenhagen.

Paris, Sept. 24. The King has diſpoſed of the Government of Flanders, vacant by the Death of the young Duke of Boufflers, in Favour of the Prince of Soubize; and that of Champagne and Brie, which the Prince of Soubize reſigned on this Occaſion, has been conferred by his Majeſty on the Count de Clermont, a Prince of the Blood of France. The publick Rejoicings for the Birth of the Duke of Burgundy, have been ſurprizingly great throughout the whole Kingdom.

Hague, Sept. 28. Our Lords the States of this Province will open their ordinary Aſſembly To-morrow, for which Purpoſe almoſt all of them are already arrived here. We learn by an Expreſs from Aix-la-Chapelle, that his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange continues in good Health, and propoſes ſetting out from that Place on Wedneſday next for Maeſtricht, where he is to embark on board a Yacht for Holland.
